MOBILE CRUSHER

Henan Hongxing Heavy Machinery Co., Ltd.

The Advantages and Benefits of Mobile Crusher:

The mobile crushing station can directly choose the working site, be directly driven to the working site without transportation and the materials can directly reach the granularity of final products. It is especially suitable for processing and crushing building wastes. The mobile crushing station greatly reduces the investment cost but improves the investment income.

The Performance Characteristics of Mobile Crusher:

Mobile crusher has the features of reasonable matching of all levels of crushing equipment; smooth discharging of the whole production line, reliable running condition, convenient operation and high efficiency and energy conservancy. It has good mobility and can extend together with the raw materials site or construction site and has many types of combinations to satisfy the processing needs of different materials.

Characteristics:

Processing ability: 90–500 t/h

Feeding size: 480–750 mm

Outlet size: 65–200 mm

Applied material: pebble, limestone, granite, basalt, diabase, andesite, etc
